PROJECT ENTRIES

PROJECT ENTRY INFORMATION

MARKETING + COMMUNICATIONS AWARDS CATEGORIES

Firms may submit as many entries as they wish. If an entry applies to more than one category, firms may choose to enter that entry multiple times into multiple categories. Entries should have been completed by the firm within the past two years.

Following each category listed below, SMPS Seattle has identified which categories most closely align with it from the SMPS Headquarters Marketing Communications Awards (MCA) program. A project may seem applicable in more than one category. Please contact Tara Brothers at tara@robinson-co.com or 206.441.8872 with questions.

MARKETING CAMPAIGN

A comprehensive, multi-tactic campaign that occurs over a period of time to promote a specific company message, event, program or project. The campaign could include a combination of tactics, media and implementation strategies to reach a targeted internal or external target audience. Examples may include direct-mail campaigns, advertising campaigns, a series of printed and digital publications, newsletters or media relations campaigns.

Note: Submissions in this category should only include digital content. Campaign submissions that cross multiple media channels should submit in the Marketing Campaign category.

Similar MCA Categories: Social media; any of the following if all efforts were promoted through a digital platform and campaign included more than one piece: advertising campaign, internal communications, newsletter, video

BRAND EXPERIENCE/IDENTITY

The development of a new or updated brand experience/identity through print and/or digital applications. This may include, but is not limited to, rollout of a new brand for a firm, a subsidiary, a department or a specific market. This category recognizes a firm's holistic implementation of marketing materials applied toward establishing a new identity, which could include a new logo, color scheme, format, graphics, layout, etc. When submitting in this category, please include a minimum of three to four examples that demonstrate the brand.
